Vines RV Resort, Paso Robles

Where to begin. So much going on. So many sights and sounds. Good food, good friends and lots of cold weather!! We went from home on the range to sunny Mexico and on to Brazil for carnivale.

The extravaganza started on the 27th with many coaches coming in. Dinner with the group was out, but because we weren't there and I forgot to ask I can't tell you where it was.

The morning of the 28th started with a great breakfast put on by the Wagonmasters, the Newby's, Sunderland's, and Chatenever's. I say that because we were getting emails telling us how great it was!! But it had lox and bagels so how bad could it be? Yum. A trip to Jeff and Trish's favorite winery was on the agenda for the afternoon. By late afternoon most of us were in our spots and getting ready for dinner which was being provided by the Vines Resort. Excellent. Most people who tried the chicken jambalaya really, really liked it. The beef stroganoff was really tender.

Waffles were served for breakfast on the 29th and the Wagonmasters, the Rihass's, Elliott's, Kiely's, and Waller's had a hard time keeping the circuits from blowing. We all appreciated the effort. The theme for the day was Western and we all showed up for dinner in our best Western hats, boots, bolo ties and jeans. Games were played before dinner with prizes being awarded. Brisket was served. These Wagonmasters were overcoming obstacles all day long. But to us it all seemed seamless.

On the morning of the 29th the theme was Mexican and we enjoyed a great breakfast of eggs Benedict, served by Wagonmasters the Windrim's, Cunningham's, Cress' and Youngblood (Muno). After which we had our meeting. We were introduced to Gale and Floyd Hubert, and Wayne and Elaine Norwood, both first time visitors and Patty McKinney who became our newest member. (Unfortunately she had to leave early the next day because her grandson was in the hospital). We have two new Sunshine ladies. Barb Halsdorff and Rose Callahan are sharing the duties. Masks were made in the afternoon. Dinner was tacos, rice, beans, taquitos and desert.

NEW YEARS EVE!! Dawned cold just like every other day, but that didn't bother us as we were ready for those great breakfast casseroles served by Wagonmaster Schmitt, Bolock, Callahan and Huff's. Afternoon saw us all prettied up and bidding on the silent auction items. Excellent decorations. Pictures were taken by Gary S (which he printed and then handed out) and Terry took pictures and candidals all weekend. Prime rib and chicken Marsala was offered for dinner. Silent auction items were paid for and Max (our new best friend) was the big silent auction winner. Then we played keep away with gifts. Well didn't it seem like that to you?

A new day, a new year!! Pancakes, bacon, and ham was served for breakfast by Wagonmasters Edmonston, Wood, Halsdorff and Southwell. Did you happen to see the appetizer tables in the afternoon? I thought the tables were going to crumble with the weight. In the afternoon, football was watched, the name badge holders were being made and the puzzle was finished by Gary and Sharon. Two very determined people. I was told this was the first time a puzzle was finished. Karen won $100 and Jeff won $60 on the football pool. Ah, dinner. It was a delightful combination of EVERYTHING. Afterwards the refrigerators were cleaned out and the contents offered to everyone.

It was with many hugs and "see you in Hemet" that we left that night. It just seemed to me that we all came to have a good time and we found good times galore.

A special thank you to all the Wagonmasters who kept us fed and on track the whole time. Your favorite (I hope) purple head.

TECH TOPICS???

Well,....we have tried this for a few months and haven't had much of a response. Mike Cress and Gary Huff have done a great job of sending me plenty of jokes. Probably have enough for the rest of the year already. But Tech Topics hasn't fared so well. So I am open to suggestions as to what you would like to see and feel comfortable submitting for the newsletter. Following are some suggestions:

Questions to the President

Recipe of the Month (we only received one recipe)

Please, please , please send me your suggestions (maybe along with your submission?).

JOKERS ARE WILD

An elderly Italian man lived alone in New Jersey . He wanted to plant his annual tomato garden, but it was very difficult work, since the ground was hard. His only son, Vincent , who used to help him, was in prison. The old man wrote a letter to his son and described his predicament:

Dear Vincent ,

I am feeling pretty sad, because it looks like I won't be able to plant my tomato garden this year. I'm just getting too old to be digging up a garden plot. I know if you were here my troubles would be over.. I know you would be happy to dig the plot for me, like in the old days.

Love, Papa

A few days later he received a letter from his son.

Dear Pop,

Don't dig up that garden. That's where the bodies are buried.

Love,
Vinnie

At 4 am . the next morning, FBI agents and local police arrived and dug up the entire area without finding any bodies. They apologized to the old man and left. That same day the old man received another letter from his son.

Dear Pop,

Go ahead and plant the tomatoes now. That's the best I could do under the circumstances.

Love you,
Vinnie

Hi Neighbor !

She's single... She's shapely... She's beautiful and she lives right across the street. I can see her place from my kitchen window.

I watched as she got home from work this evening. I was surprised when she walked across the street, up my driveway and knocked on the door.

I opened the door, she looked at me and said; "I just got home, and I have this strong urge to have a good time, dance, get drunk, and have sex tonight.

Are you doing anything?"

I quickly replied, "Nope, I'm free!"

"Great," she said. "Can you watch my dog?"

Being a senior citizen really sucks!
