KOMFORT KRUISERS

July 2020

Bonelli Bluffs RV Resort

For the first time since joining the KK's there was no wagon masters and we were on our own for meals.

Thursday saw all but two rigs arrive. Paul J. was unofficially in charge (and got teased a lot) and saw everyone arriving and helped them to their spot. There was no hugging, but several people stood at their rigs and waved and talked. Already this has started out to be DIFFERENT. Some wore masks and some didn't, but a respectable distance was kept. Penny W. is such a trooper. She had a shot in her back on Tuesday and still came. Some of us took a walk to the lake just before dark. Thanks to Paul we had a fire that night and most of us attended staying a safe distance apart.

Friday morning dawned bright and sunny. A precursor to the coming heat that day. The four golfers took off early with lots of water and snacks to keep the hydrated. It was a very lowkey day, and Jack R. and Mark and Debbie F. arrived. We all wandered down to congregate under the big trees at Debbie and Marks site. Lots of catching up as we hadn't seen each other in over four months. Soon it was dinner time and we all scattered to go fix dinner. Another campfire was enjoyed by most of us.

Saturday morning and it's starting to get really hot and the air comes on while we're eating breakfast. Terry decides we're going to take a ride up to Mt. Baldy. From the look of it, everybody decided the same thing!! There wasn't a big spot on the side of the road that didn't have cars parked. The town was really crowded also so we just did a drive by. On the way back we decided to look for the duplex we had rented in Pomona over 50 years ago. Big mistake. Landmarks were no longer there and after wandering around for almost an hour we gave up. It's so true. You can't go home again, cause you can't find it. LOL. After a brief nap (wandering around misdirected makes you tired) we went out under the awning where there was a nice breeze and people started congregating. And once again come dinner time we all scattered to fix it and eat. Another campfire was held and we all enjoyed it. Golf trophies were handed out and Terry and Paul won for best ball, while Bill and Vinny played individual scores and won first prizes. Please note, the two jokers decided to have their picture taken with the trophies upside down. Some of us stayed up a little late yakking and catching up. Terry showed Mark an app on his phone that lets you know what the airplane coming at you or near you is. Where it's coming from, the Carrier and where it's going. We enjoy using it at home at night out on the deck. If we kept anyone up we apologize but I did hear air conditioners on so I hope that drowned us out. By the way it was 100 degrees today.

Saturday evening campfire

Vince Z. and Bill Z. with their trophies (they played individual scores)

Sunday and time to load up and head for home as we were all leaving that day.

This newsletter is really going to be short. All my jokes and stories are in my phone and its frozen. Have you tried to get anything done with your cell carrier? Mine suggested I go on-line and buy a new one and they wouldn't let us in the door.

Editors Terry and Ruth Wood

KK's on the Go

Heard that Adone and Greg R. and Steve and Lynndy N. were in Washington when Jim and Kathe R. just happened to pull into the same park.

Kathy and Gary went to Virginia to spend the 4th with her family. Then they drove to Virginia to see his son and family.

ON THE OUCHIE M LIST

Paul is scheduled to have Hip surgery the end of this month. He tried to keep away from everyone as much as possible so he wouldn't get sick. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Luckily Jean gets to be with him as they're only keeping him a short time and she has to learn how to be his home aid.

Kathy and Gary are doing just fine. All of Kathy's Drs. are happy with her, and Gary's last scan shows no change from two years ago.

Many, many, many years ago Jim R. gave this to us. Finally, there's a blank space to put it.

WD-40 uses:

1. Protects silver from tarnishing
2. Removes road tar and grime from cars.
3. Cleans and lubricates guitar strings
4. Gives floors that just-waxed sheen without making them slippery
5. Keeps flies off of cows
6. Restores and cleans chalkboards
7. Removes lipstick stains
8. Loosens stubborn zippers.
9. Untangles jewelry tangles. (now that's one I can use)
10. Removes stains from stainless steel sinks
11. Removes dirt and grime from the barbecue grill
12. Keeps ceramic/terra cotta garden pots from oxidizing
13. Removes tomato stains from clothing
14. Keeps glass shower doors free of water spots
15. Camouflages scratches in ceramic and marble floors
16. Keeps scissors working smoothly
17. Lubricates noisy door hinges on vehicles and doors in homes (yep, works great)
18. It removes black scuff marks from the kitchen floor
19. Bug guts will eat away the finish on your car if not removed quickly (good to know for RV'ers)
20. Gives a children's gym slide a shine for a super fast slide

More in the next newsletter.

For those going to Oceano have a great time.

SOOO!!!

A woman goes into a store to buy a fishing rod and reel. She doesn't know which one to get so she just grabs one and goes over to the register. There is a store employee standing there with dark shades on.

She says, "Excuse me sir... can you tell me anything about this rod and reel?" He says, "Ma'am I'm blind but if you drop it on the counter I can tell you everything you need to know about it from the sound that it makes." She didn't believe him, but dropped it on the counter anyway. He said "That's a 6' graphite rod with Zebco 202 reel and 10 lb. test line... It's a good all around rod and reel and it's $20.00." She says, "That's amazing that you can tell all that just by the sound of it dropping on the counter. I think it's what I'm looking for so I'll take it." He walks behind the counter to the register.

And in the meantime the woman farts. At first she is embarrassed but then realizes that there is no way he could tell it was her... being blind he wouldn't know that she was the only person around.

He rings up the sale and says, "That will be $25.50." She says, "But didn't you say it was $20.00?"

" He says, "Yes ma'am, the rod and reel is $20.00, the duck call is $3.00, and the catfish stink bait is $2.50!"

Half of us are going to come out of this quarantine as amazing cooks. The other half will come out with a drinking problem.

I used to spin that toilet paper like I was on Wheel of Fortune. Now I turn it like I'm cracking a safe.

I need to practice social-distancing from the refrigerator.

Still haven't decided where to go for Easter -----
The Living Room or The Bedroom

Public Service Announcement: every few days try your jeans on just to make sure they fit. Pajamas will have you believe all is well in the kingdom.

Homeschooling is going well. 2 students suspended for fighting and 1 teacher fired for drinking on the job.

I don't think anyone expected that when we changed the clocks we'd go from Standard Time to the Twilight Zone

This morning I saw a neighbor talking to her cat. It was obvious she thought her cat understood her.

I came into my house, told my dog..... we laughed a lot.

So, after this quarantine.....will the producers of My 600 Pound Life just find me or do I find them?

Quarantine Day 5: Went to this restaurant called THE KITCHEN. You have to gather all the ingredients and make your own meal. I have no clue how this place is still in business.

My body has absorbed so much soap and disinfectant lately that when I pee it cleans the toilet.

Day 5 of Homeschooling: One of these little monsters called in a bomb threat.

I'm so excited --- it's time to take out the garbage. What should I wear?

I hope the weather is good tomorrow for my trip to Puerto Backyardo. I'm getting tired of Los Livingroom.

Classified Ad: Single man with toilet paper seeks woman with hand Sanitizer for good clean fun.

Day 6 of Homeschooling: My child just said "I hope I don't have the same teacher next year".... I'm offended.

Better 6 feet apart than 6 feet under

Sooo!!!

After I retired, my wife insisted that I accompany her on her trips to Target. Unfortunately, like most men; I found shopping boring and preferred to get in and get out. Equally unfortunate, my wife is like most women -she loves to browse. Yesterday my dear wife received the following letter, from the local Target:

Dear Mrs. Dew :

Over the past six months, your husband has caused quite a commotion, in our store. We cannot tolerate this behavior and have been forced to ban both of you from the store. Our complaints against your husband, Mr. Dew, are listed below and are documented by our video surveillance cameras:

1. June 15: He took 24 boxes of condoms and randomly put them in other people's carts when they weren't looking.
2. July 2: Set all the alarm clocks in Housewares to go off at 5-minute intervals.
3. July 7: He made a trail of tomato juice on the floor leading to the women's restroom.
4. July 19: Walked up to an employee and told her in an official voice, 'Code 3 in Housewares. Get on it right away'. This caused the employee to leave her assigned station and receive a reprimand from her Supervisor that in turn resulted with a union grievance, causing management to lose time and costing the company money. We don't have a Code 3.
5. August 4: Went to the Service Desk and tried to put a bag of M&Ms on layaway.
6. August 14: Moved a 'CAUTION - WET FLOOR' sign to a carpeted area.

7. August 15: Set up a tent in the camping department and told the children shoppers he'd invite them in if they would bring pillows and blankets from the bedding department to which twenty children obliged.

8. August 23: When a clerk asked if they could help him, he began crying and screamed, 'Why can't you people just leave me alone?' EMT's were called.

9. September 4: Looked right into the security camera and used it as a mirror while he picked his nose.

10. September 10: While handling guns in the hunting department, he asked the clerk where the antidepressants were.

11. October 3: Darted around the store suspiciously while, loudly humming the, 'Mission Impossible' theme.

12. October 6: In the auto department, he practiced his, 'Madonna Look' using different sizes of funnels.

13. October 18: Hid in a clothing rack and when people browsed through, yelled 'PICK ME! PICK ME!'

14. October 22: When an announcement came over the loud speaker, he assumed a fetal position and screamed; 'OH NO! IT'S THOSE VOICES AGAIN!'

15. Took a box of condoms to the checkout clerk and asked "where is the fitting room?"

And last, but not least:

16. October 23: Went into a fitting room, shut the door, waited awhile; then yelled very loudly, 'Hey! There's no toilet paper in here.' One of the clerks passed out.

If you don't send this to your dearest friends you will be depriving them of some good humor ...
